Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

I seldom listen to the radio so I haven't heard Johnnie's broadcast. They tell me he's still harping about women students being accosted on the campus. Dear me, but he's been at that a long time. Better think of something new, Johnnie.

No one can know, of course, when an incident may happen, but it's utterly impossible to provide for all contingencies. I am afraid Johnnie is just having a good time. Shame on you, Johnnie, for scaring the girls.

If you really think, big fellow, that the campus is infested with prowlers, why don't you get out and catch one yourself? Label it Exhibit A. Dress up some night like a young lady and go sauntering alone among the trees. Wait until one of them accosts you, and then, boy, oh boy, land him an upper-cut from that big fist of yours that will keep the guy's face lifted for the rest of his life. It's the only thing that will do him good, and it would make a fine story. First class reporters very often make their own news.

No use talking about more lights and more policemen. Someone will steal the lights or break them, and the girls, bless their hearts, will not always go where the lights are. We've tried that.

Perhaps a system of escorts might help. Why not have a table in the library where escorts would be available? Girls, singly or in groups, who wished to leave the campus, could report at that table and a young man would walk with them to the street.

Many of our men would be glad to help in that way. I remember when I was in school I was terribly bashful, and would have welcomed an excuse to walk even that far with a girl. Ho, hum! I doubt if anyone is bashful like that these days. I actually suffered.

Last Dance Has Wild West As Theme Tonight

CITY SLICKER SUITS BANNED

YIPEEEEEEE!!

The gol-darndest, rip snortiest, orneriest group of galloots that ever threw a laig over a flea-bitten nag will assemble in the Men's gym tonight from nine until twelve for the last student body dance of the quarter.

According to Lucille Johnson, chairman, any garb is acceptable except city slicker suits. Women should come in rags, sacks, or calico, as the theme of the affair is the "49er's" and the wild and wooly west is to be reborn.

Sheldon Taix's fourteen-piece orchestra, known as State Taix and his Californians, will provide all the latest music for the affair. For tonight, Jim Bailey, director of the Revelries, will carry the baton and act as M.C. for the evening.

LARGE CROWD SEES BOXING FINALS IN GYM

By "CHUCK" SAMMON
"You can't beat the Novice tournament for thrills".

That was the general feeling of the capacity crowd that filled Spartan Pavilion last night as they left the gym after witnessing one of the most colorful Novice tournaments ever presented here at San Jose State college.

ROOTING SECTION

Largest group present last night was the rooting section representing Eckert Hall, followed closely by the Spartan Knights. The Commerce club won the team championship with a total of 19 points while second place was a tie between the P. E. Majors and Kappa Kappa Sigma.

Outstanding honors of the evening went to the smallest and largest fighters in the ring. In the opening bout of the finals Tosh Mitome and John Kawachi gave a perfect exhibition of boxing when they went three rounds at top speed. Kawachi won the bout. The other outstanding match of the evening was the heavyweight bout between Vic Rulofson and Bill Davenport. These two boys threw leather from the opening bell and their slugfest was the hardest fought battle of the evening. Davenport won on a knockout from

NORMAN BREEDEN TO INSTRUCT STUDENTS IN AVIATION PROGRAM

By BILL RODRICK

Fifteen San Jose State college students have been officially selected to participate in the government's experimental aviation program here, Mr. Frank Peterson, Aviation department head, announced yesterday.

Final selections from a list of 24 approved by Dr. Elridge Adams of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, came following a telegram received yesterday from Grove Webster, chief of the Private Flying Development Division in Washington, authorizing college authorities to select the final fifteen.

RELEASED LIST

Students whose names appear on the list released by Mr. Peterson are: James Bailey, Edwin Bayley, Arthur Carpenter, Robert

Dan O'Neill Wins Campus Florist Name Contest

"Archcliff Campus Florists" submitted by Dan O'Neill was selected yesterday as the title of the new campus florist organization started by Archie Brown and Clifford Nelson, State students.

The new florist business, was started on the campus in response to student demands for inexpensive corsages. Cut flowers and special wedding arrangements are also available. Students interested in purchasing flowers should contact either Archie Brown or Clifford Nelson at least 24 hours in advance and all sales are on a cash basis.

First prize in the name contest is a beautiful orchid corsage and, according to Archie Brown, Dan O'Neill may receive the same anytime before the end of next quarter.

RAINBOW CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

New Rainbow club officers recently elected in Room 1 of the Home Economics building were Edith Riley, president; Jeannette Weld, vice-president; June Buhl, secretary; and Verda Emmons, A.W.S. representative.

Installation of new officers will be held Saturday, March 11 at 12:15 at Hotel De Anza.

"Forty-Niner" corsages consisting of fruits, vegetables, and spring flowers will be sold by Y.W.C.A. members for ten and fifteen cents at the student body dance tonight.

Included with the flowers furnished by the new campus floral organization will be three formal corsage orders. A gardenia order goes with the ten-cent corsages and an orchid and camelia order is included with two of the fifteen-cent corsages.

Two Y.W.C.A. girls will sell the flowers in a booth in front of the Men's gym.

Lucky corsage winners can place their orders with either Archie Brown or Clifford Nelson, campus florists, any time before the end of next quarter.

The fifteen students selected will begin training in both ground work and flying Monday, Mr. Peterson said. Selections were based on scholarship and physical factors.

Norman Breeden, San Jose Airport flying instructor, will instruct the students on a contract calling for 240 dollars per man in the first experimental unit. Ground work will be given here in the college Aviation department.

EXPERIMENTAL

The aviation program, which ends June 10, is primarily an experiment to get data, according to Mr. Peterson, for the expanded

MARCH 28 DEADLINE FOR PHELAN COPY

Students wishing to enter the annual Phelan Literary contest are advised to turn in all material earlier than the absolute deadline, March 28, Registration Day of the spring quarter, according to Dr. Raymond Barry, head of the English department.

The time for handing in entries has been extended through spring vacation, in order to allow students to work on their material during that time. However, all those who can possibly do so are asked to submit entries beforehand in order to allow more time for tabulation, according to Dr. Barry.

Equal prizes are offered this year in all of the divisions open for competition: lyric, sonnet, free verse, short story, essay, and plays. There will be no narrative poetry division open in the contest this year.

Total Vaccinations Reach 436 Mark

A total of 436 students were vaccinated for smallpox this week, according to Miss Margaret Twombly, Health department head.

"People who have received vaccinations should be careful not to scratch them or to get them wet," said Miss Twombly, who urged students to report back to the Health office.

Big Turnout Expected At Organization Dinner

Campus organizations will send one hundred representatives to the annual Organization Dinner this evening, according to Dorothy Curry, acting president.

Tickets can still be obtained today. Ducats can be secured in the Controller's office any time today up till four o'clock. This is to allow for those organizations who have not made reservations, according to Miss Curry.

HILTON TO PRESIDE

President Jack Hilton will come from Bakersfield to preside over this annual affair. The dinner will begin promptly at six o'clock in the Pompeian Court at O'Brien's.

As in the past years, no faculty members will attend this affair. This should allow for a greater freedom of expression, declared Miss Curry.

Members of the student council will lead the discussion on possible amendments to the constitution which will be included in the spring election.

GIVE OPINIONS

The meeting will give all campus organizations a chance to give their outright opinions concerning campus problems.

No tickets will be sold at the door, so anyone planning to attend must purchase his ticket today, according to Curry.

Any subject of interest concerning the school in any manner may be brought up at this time by any representative.

CAMPUS GAYWAY

By PATTY BLACKWOOD

ALLENIANs really put forth all their efforts and as usual, with all their functions, their dance last Saturday evening was said to be lots of fun and everyone had a good time.

ONE of the outstanding features about the party, which was held at Oak Knoll Country Club, was the Allenian crest made of GARDENIAS which hung above the hearth in which there was a roaring fire.

CHAPERONS for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Meadows, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Mosher, Miss Margaret Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Minssen.

AMONG the Allenians who enjoyed the music of Ernie Hecsher's orchestra were: Mary Frances Hill, Audrey Orcutt, Betty King, Betty Burell, Inadele Strohmalier, Mary Falcone, Helen Settergram, Polly Colvin, Betty Lund, Dorothy Daniels, Thelma Skog, Plinette Maggini, Lorraine Smith, Lola Rich, Marlo Stevens, Shirley Watson, Ruth Watson, Mabel Clements, Barbara Mathew, Barbara Stillwell, Janis Jayet, Lucille Gruber, president, Sue Brady, bid chairman, Charlotte Dengler, Dorothy Gruber, fiancée of Julius Samuels, and Mary Bell Meredith.

PHI KAPS started their new season off with a splash—in the school POOL, on the twenty-first when they celebrated Washington's birthday with a swimming party followed by a pot-luck supper held at the home of MRS. RAE WIRTZ. According to some of the members, the girls learned to paddle their OWN CANOES. Phi Kaps also have something up their sleeves which they won't peep a word about.

SPEAKING of campus personalities—two of the most unique pairs of shoes recently seen were on Rutheda Elliott (who always has that different appearance), and Vivian Lindsay. Rutheda's were of the Dutch wooden soled class, only in white and with clever ankle straps, while Vivian's had unusual painted soles and heels, with wine colored tie lasts.

GENE ROCCHI, former Spartan gridman, is now doing a little photography work on the side while out of school this quarter. He's been taking pictures of different organizations and is doing a perfectly swell job of it. The group picture of Allenians was so good that Gene sold more pictures than there were members.

LIKE the days of yore, when knights wore fair ladies' gloves and colors while participating in tournaments, so were gentlemen of the boxing ring when someone got the brilliant idea that KAPPAS and various other organizations should sponsor the matches Wednesday and Thursday nites. Anyway, though Kappas were surprised to see the cute feature written by a certain sports writer in the Mercury last Tuesday morning, they appeared en masse, inspiring the prospective young pugs with their buoyant cheers.

TOMORROW the girls from Burnett's, or rather I should say the proposed SAPPHO house, are attending the Fair in a group, most of them being Sapphos. With twelve of them all together, I'm sure they will make the numbers of the huge typewriter jump up a few notches.

REVELRIES

This afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium there will be a sign-up of all those persons who harbor ambitions to vocalize in the Spartan Revelries. The actual try-outs will be held on the Morris Dailey stage at 4 o'clock on Monday. Those who sign up will be given the opportunity to go over their songs with a pianist this afternoon. If pos-

Washington Square
Footnotes
the Editor's Column

The other day there appeared in this column a short acknowledgment of appreciation in regard to several courses that the writer has been exposed to during his past three and a half years at San Jose State.

Mention of these courses was made during an indulgence of mellow retrospection... sort of summing-up the curriculum we've been exposed to and just what it meant to us. It was, I suppose, an affliction that is directly the result of the present malady of rather awesome Senior-ites.

Bob Work

I was tremendously surprised when this wistful thinking out loud on the typewriter keys resulted in reverberations from every corner of the campus varying in degree all the way from faint meagre pipings to bellows of both approval and objection that included students and faculty alike.

This response prompted me to add a feature to the material in the Spartan Daily that I hope will prove to be worthwhile.

Here it is.

Hereafter students, both on the Daily staff and from the school at large, will give a short review of any classes that they have found worthwhile, fair, mediocre, etc.

This will give students who are making out their programs for next quarter an efficient guide upon which to base their selections. By acquainting themselves with opinions and reactions of other students who have already taken the courses they will at least have some inkling of what their classes are to consist of.

This feature is opened to the college at large in order to get a thoroughly representative opinion. For that reason everyone is urged to participate.

In Monday's Daily a sample will appear of how this material is to be handled. Please use that sample as a pattern for your own contribution.

Let me also state that adverse criticism will be just as acceptable as that which is favorable. All articles will be by-lined with the writer's name and major.

The Spartan Daily is making this opportunity possible so that everyone can, for the benefit of the entire student body, make an honest evaluation of the courses given at this college.

The rest is up to you.

—BOB WORK.

Boxers Face Cal Aggies In Swatfest Tonight

Spartans Ready For Strong Mustangs

Ten Spartan boxers will make a trip to Davis tonight to trade swats with the strong team representing Cal Aggies. None of the first stringers on Coach Dee Portal's team have felt any ill effects from their Canadian matches and the team will be at full strength for the contest tonight.

Cal Aggies has long been a powerful contender in intercollegiate boxing circles in California and it is expected that the local glove tossers will have to be on their toes for the bouts.

Besides the regular first string, Coach Portal will take along three reserve fighters in order to fill out the program. Dale Wren and George Konoshima will both fight in the 127 pound class as there will be no opponent for Konoshima at his own weight of 120. Lightweight, Charles Kerwin and Don Taylor; welterweight, Jimmy Kincaid and Allen Macey; middleweight, Bill Bolich; 165 pounds, Gene Fisk; Light heavyweight, Pete Bolich; and heavyweight, Don Presley complete the program.

Spartans Out To Scalp Aztecs

San Jose and San Diego State colleges will meet tonight in the first of a two-game basketball series to be played in the southern city. The Spartans and Aztecs will wind up the season tomorrow night.

San Jose, runners-up in the Northern California Intercollegiate conference, will face the winners of the Southern California championship.

The Spartans are playing their best basketball of the season, and are given a better than even chance to turn back the Aztecs. Hubbard's crew will unleash its fast breaking offense, which has functioned with perfection the past few contests.

Hubbard will open with about the same lineup that he has relied upon during the current campaign. Kotta and Bendeich will operate at forwards; Captain Thomas at center, and Allen and Tornell at guards.

TENNIS TEAM MEETS C.O.P.

San Jose State's tennis varsity travels to Stockton tomorrow to meet the College of Pacific club in the first scheduled match of the season.

Blesh plans to take a full squad for the matches. There will be the usual three doubles encounters and six singles matches.

Tomorrow's contests are not on the league schedule, as COP is not in the Northern California Intercollegiate loop. First conference match for the Bleshmen is set for March 11 against San Francisco State.

TRACK NOTICE

All track candidates meet at 3:00 p.m., Monday, March 6th, in Men's gym.

This includes all varsity and frosh. If you have not been out before, be sure to come. If you have equipment out, be there.

If for any reason you cannot appear, send word. Meeting lasts five minutes. Very important.—TINY.

Varsity Batmen Victors By 11-1 Score Over Aggies

Carpenter, Zetterquist Hold Foes To Two Hits; Captain Riordan Stars At Short

By FRANK BONANNO

DAVIS, Calif., March 2.—Led by Art Carpenter, who allowed only two hits, the varsity baseball team used their big sticks once more to knock out 13 hits, and win another ball game 11-1 over the Cal Aggies this afternoon.

Carpenter had little difficulty in silencing the big guns of the Aggies, and was relieved in the seventh by Herman Zetterquist, who pitched the last three innings without allowing a hit. Zetterquist, according to Coach McPherson, will develop into a top notch pitcher before the season is over.

The Spartans bunched their hits in the first inning to take an early lead of three runs. In the fifth the powerful hitting of Zimmerman and Rhodes produced four more runs for the State nine. Not satisfied with this the big berthas of the Spartans went out and put the game on ice in the sixth, when Dunn, Rhodes, and Ales hit safely, scoring three more runs.

The brilliant ball playing of Captain Riordan at shortstop and Sanchez at second, proved the best working combination in the infield so far this season. Sanchez and Riordan played flawless ball, and both men collected three hits at the plate.

Cal Aggies found things not to their liking, as Carpenter and Zetterquist whizzed them passed the plate, throwing little but strikes. Art struck out eight men and Herman two. The Aggies found Art for one run in the second inning when he allowed French to walk and the next man hit a double for one of two hits in the entire game.

The Spartans have improved in their hitting power since the beginning of the season. This should help the State nine in their future games, especially when they meet the California Bears next Tuesday.

Yesterday's game was dedicated to a close friend of Captain Riordan, who is in a hospital in a serious condition.

NOTICES

There will be a meeting of Eta Epsilon Monday, March 6, at 7:30 p.m. All members please be there. A group picture will be taken. Meeting in Room 2 of the H.E. building.—M. Steaffens.

Frosh Play San Jose High In Double Header

With a double header this weekend and the too-good-to-be-true weather finally getting back into its usual March form, Coach Hovey McDonald's freshman baseball squad has its collective fingers crossed.

However, if it does not rain, the boys will be ready and willing to play San Jose high. The pitching staff will be strengthened tomorrow by the return of Leverton, who has been out of suit for some time with a badly twisted ankle, and Albanese, whose pugilistic ardors were cooled in the semi-finals of the Novice Boxing tournament.

MOUND MEN

In the pitching spot either Taggart or Kasparovitch will start, bolstered by the aforementioned returning men, while Onyat, Atkinson, or Theiler will start in back of the plate.

The first and second base positions have been generally conceded to Gomez and Uliana. Sanchez has third base pretty much to himself. At shortstop Johnston has the nod but Cloyd is close behind.

OUTFIELD

After some difficulty in getting an outfielding combination picked out, Juritch, Anello, and Redman seem to have the positions won, for this game at least.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the senior committee on announcements in the Controller's office at 12 o'clock today, Friday.

FAR WESTERN MEET FINDS S. J. IN SLUMP

FOUR LOCALS GIVEN CHANCES

Final workouts before the Far Western Wrestling tournament today and tomorrow on Treasure Island, were conducted last night under the supervision of Coach Gene (Dewey) Grattan.

According to Grattan, the entire team seems to be in a slump following their spectacular defeat of the University of California last week. Many of the men are not in the best of condition, and this may hamper the team in the tournament where many matches will be held in each division.

The entire squad of 12 men entering the tournament left at 8 o'clock this morning for the Oakland YMCA, where the weighing-in will be held.

Following the weighing-in, the team will travel to the Island and rest until the preliminary matches at 2:00 in the afternoon. Finals will not be held until Saturday night.

FAVORITES

Jack Fiebig, Fortune Masdeo, and Mel Bruno are considered as the most likely prospects for individual championships in the 135, 145, and 155 pound divisions respectively. Captain Mel Rush, at 165 pounds, is also a possible winner if he has completely recovered from his recent attack of the measles.

MORE ENTRIES

Freddie Albright will compete for the Spartans in the 128 lb. division. Other entrants are Vic Christiansen, 115; Con Lacy, 121; Bob Norona, 135; Bob Riddle, 165; Charlie Smith, 175; and Sam Della Maggiore, heavyweight.

SPARTANS ENTER S. F. INDOOR MEET

Coach Glenn "Tiny" Hartnraft will enter a seven-man team in the Indoor Invitational meet at Treasure Island tomorrow night.

The soft-spoken cinder mentor has nominated virtually the same team that competed in the Pacific Association championships at the island last week.

In the running events Spartans who will go to the post for San Jose are Hallstone, 50-yard dash; Kerr, 600-yd. run; Ruble, 1000-yd. run; and McNabb in the mile.

Last week Kerr placed third in the 600, while Ruble and McNabb grabbed fourths in their respective events.

San Jose will be represented in the field events by Finn and Sunseri in the pole vault, and Vasconcellos both placed third in this P.A.A. meet.

The meeting was held in the administration building of the Fair, according to Mr. Arthur Kelly, Accounting instructor, who also attended the discussion.

Bailey was leader of an orchestra in San Francisco last summer.

Decorations will be a cross between a Western and Spanish atmosphere, according to Steve Hosa, decorations chairman. He is being assisted by the brothers Joe, and Tom Bohnett.

As spice for the evening, a floor show will be provided. Names of all the entertainers were not available, but Len Baskin, triple-threat Russian, will do his part to liven things up, according to Bailey.

Margaret Morrish, blonde newcomer to campus entertainment, will vocalize for the orchestra. Also Jack Wiles, student composer of the college fight song, will elucidate vocally.

With the coming of the expanded aviation program, Mr. Peterson predicts a different air instruction set-up for the college, though no definite information on this exists as yet, he said.

Each flying student will carry three thousand dollars in life insurance and 500 dollars insurance in medical reimbursement, cost of this to be paid out of the 20 dollar lab fee and the 10 dollar medical fee.
